FOREWORD

The Bennion Family History, Volume I, completed October 7, 1930, by Harden Bennion, assisted by the Historical Committee of the Bennion Family, and published under the direction of Samuel Otis Bennion, gives an account of the lives of Samuel and John Bennion, of their wives and of their sons and daughters who survived childhood. Their grandchildren are listed, and birth, marriage and death information is given where these events had transpired prior to publication of the book.

It is desirable, while facts are at hand and memories can be called upon for assistance, periodically to assemble a record of descendants. Therefore, in 1961 the Bennion Family Association undertook to publish a brief, factual listing of the families descended from Samuel and John Bennion. Forms for supplying information were placed in the hands of representatives of each of the thirty branches of the family. Not all the families supplied all the requested information, but the response was truly remarkable and information on some eleven hundred families has been reported and compiled. There are bound to be some mistakes in reporting and recording the thousands of individual facts herein reported, but a vigorous effort was maintained to avoid and to eliminate mistakes and to obtain a complete record. Of course, new marriages and new arrivals soon make the census incomplete.

The order of listing families in this book is aimed at simplifying the tracing of family connections, particularly from far down the list toward the top. First is presented the family of John Bennion and Elizabeth Roberts, parents of Samuel and John. In Division I are presented the two families of Samuel Bennion, followed by nine subdivisions, each one listing in order the families descending from each one of his nine sons and daughters who married. Subdivision I lists the descendants of John Rowland Bennion, Subdivision 2, the descendants of Hyrum Bennion and so on. Division II, with 21 subdivisions, presents the descendants of John Bennion.

Throughout each subdivision, in listing the branching families, the newest family descending from an older brother or sister is presented before proceeding with the families descending from the next older brother or sister. If a son or daughter married more than once, all the descendants from the earlier marriage are listed before proceeding to list the families of the later marriage.

A total of 1159 families are herein presented. The total number of children in these families is 3701, with an aggregate family membership, which includes the parents not of Bennion lineage but exclusive of such parents where the marriage ended in divorce, of 4796.

The three foregoing totals by divisions and subdivisions are as follows:

	No. of Families	No. of Children	Including non-Bennion Parent		No. of Families	No. of Children	Including non-Bennion Parent

Elizabeth	Jan. 10, 1822, Moor Lane	;	July 16, 1844, Hawarden, Wales; 1890 (see note)

Note: Mary, born Aug. 25, 1817, married Joseph Williams of Hawarden, born Sept. 30, 1817. They had children: Elizabeth, born Aug. 10, 1843; John, born Jan. 4, 1848; Joseph, born Feb. 28, 1853, died May 5, 1853, and buried in Hawarden Churchyard; Samuel, born Jan. 3, 1855; and Mary Eva, born June 10, 1859. Joseph and Mary Williams moved to Holyhead, northwest corner of Wales, where they were visited Nov. 15-20, 1872, by Mary's brother, John, and by her brother, Samuel, and daughter, Alice, in 1874. Mary died Aug. 16, 1878, and was buried in Hawarden Churchyard.

Elizabeth, the younger sister, married Thomas Davies of Hawarden, July 16, 1844 at Hawarden. Their first child died; Elizabeth was born Apr. 8, 1846; the third child died; Henrietta died, Frederick Henry was born June 1853; Latham was born Feb. 1855, and Charles Edward was born Feb. 1858. Four other children died as infants. Thomas and Elizabeth emigrated and settled in Omaha, then moved to Indianapolis, Indiana. Elizabeth Davies married a Mr. Kountze and he and his sons were wealthy bankers and financiers in St. Louis and New York.

Footnote: The Born, Married, Died, Parents information throughout these listings of families relates to the respective husband and wife, not to the children. This repetition of some information will make sure the connection of the Bennion side of each family to the correct preceding family. It will make easier the task of making the correct connection with the preceding family on the non-Bennion side of each family.

To further simplify lineage identification, the Bennion Lineage has been marked by an asterisk. The editors may have missed in a few instances where there is Bennion blood in both husband and wife.

ORIGIN OF THE BENNION NAME

Welsh surnames, with few exceptions, are derived from a father's given name, using the given name itself or, more often, adding the prefix b or p or adding the suffix s, all three of which signify son of. B or p have been trimmed down from ab or ap which mean son of, and s has been trimmed down from ws which is the diminutive form of a name, as Sammy is to Samuel. Thus, the children of a man named Ennion might take the surname Ennion or Bennion or Ennis.

The given name Ennion, in a variety of spellings, was made popular by a king named Einion Yrth who ruled over North Wales from 389 A.D. to 443. Three geographic names remain in Montgomeryshire to preserve his memory--the small city of Caereinion, the Castle Caereinion and the small Ennion River. Caer means a strong-hold.

Two listings of families living in the general area of Hope-Mold-Cilcain (pronounced Kilken), one made about 1200 A.D. and one in 1315 show a substantial number with the Ennion name. Pedigree lists and charts of the gentry in Northeast Wales also show a considerable number of Ennion names in their lists.

Surnames were taken by the Welsh living near the English border between 1400 and 1600. Leases of property and other records in the Hawarden (pronounced Harden) area show a Bennion surname in 1476 and in the Shrewsbury area in 1475. It requires half a page to list the variety of surnames which have been derived from the given name Ennion. English parish clerks helped to enlarge this variety.

Since any father named Ennion could give rise to a Bennion family the Bennions of Hawarden probably are not related to those in Shropshire, though Bennion families from both areas were intermingled in Chester, Liverpool, London and other parts of England and in the United States, Canada and Australia.

THE ANCESTRY OF SAMUEL AND JOHN BENNION

The parish registers, wills, probates and other records yield ancestral information back to the middle of the 16th century. Fragmentary records of land leases give an inkling as to where our Bennion ancestors lived for centuries prior to the 16th century.

The Hawarden Parish Register begins in 1585 A.D. There are only twenty-five Bennion entries in the register from 1585 to 1685 and many of these were made in the first twenty years. Hawarden wills and probates now of record begin about 1550. There are only four Bennion wills of record prior to 1800 A.D. These are the wills of William, 1690; his son John, 1714; John's daughter-in-law Susan Baxter Bennion, 1755; and John's other daughter-in-law Margaret Howell Bennion, 1758.

From existing early Hawarden records it appears that Richard Banion was born about 1525, that Hugh Banion was born about 1530 and John Bannion was born about 1540. The earliest proven ancestors of Samuel and John Bennion are William and Ann Bennion of Little Mancott. William died 1690 and Ann died in 1672. She was very probably the daughter of William Ledsham of Mancott.

In chronological order the ancestors of Samuel and John Bennion as indicated or determined from the available records already mentioned appear to be or are as follows:

Probable Progenitors

1. John Banion, born about 1540, evidently of Mancott. No record available of his birth, marriage, burial nor of any sons or daughters, but his name appears in important roles in wills, probates and other proceedings relating to Mancott persons from 1574 to 1600.

2. William Bannion of Mancott, marr. 5 Oct. 1606 to Jane Cartwright of Mancott.

3. William Bannyon the younger of Mancott, marr. about 1630 to Katherin ———. Katherin wife of William Bannion was buried 10 Feb. 1632/3. Probably William remarried. Elenora, daughter of William Bannyon was baptized 6 Dec. 1640. If the next William in this list is the son of this William he may have been the son of Katherin or he may have been the son of a second wife.

Proven Progenitors

4. William Bennion of Little Mancott, later of Moor, marr. about 1657 to Ann (probably Ledsham).

5. John Bennion of Mancott, marr. 17 Apr. 1688 to Alice Street of Moor.

6. John Bennion of Mancott, marr. 8 Oct. 1713 to Susannah Baxter, Backford Parish, Cheshire. It appears probable that Susannah's father, Thomas Baxter, was born and raised in Hawarden.

7. John Bennion of Mancott, marr. 22 Apr. 1746 to Ann Griffith of Hawarden, but formerly of Flint Mountain Village, Flint Parish.

8. William Bennion of Mancott, marr. 10 Mar. 1785 to Elizabeth Eubale (In Hawarden parish register written both Ibell and Iball.) formerly of Bistree Township, Mold Parish.

9. John Bennion of Moor's Lane, marr. 14 Sept. 1811 to Elizabeth Roberts of Hope Owen Township, Hope Parish.

Whence came these Bennions whose surnames begin to appear in records of the Hawarden area about 1500 A.D.? The following data abstracted from the more important leases in and near the area indicate the answer. Most of the locations mentioned are within two to five miles of the townships of Moor and Mancott.

Abstract of More Important Leases of the Ravenscroft Family, by Randle Holmes Jr., 1645.

in the British Museum.

Date	Lessee	Township Location of Leased Property

1476	Richard Banyon	Knotefford
1494	William Eynan	Kinerton
1535	Enyon	Hawarden

This is only a list of the more important leases. The presumption is that when it became the practice to adopt a surname some took the surname Bennion. No record indicates that during this period a man with the Bennion surname moved in to the area. It would appear from all the available records that the ancestors of our known Bennion progenitors lived in the area that is now Flintshire for many generations before the Parish registers were kept.

Of interest is the fact that John Bennion, following the death of his father William in 1690, received from Thomas Ravenscroft a lease for his lifetime and the lifetime of his son John, the John who married Susannah Baxter. The original lease, about 20 inches by 30 inches on parchment, is in the National Library of Wales at Aberystwyth. Among other provisions it calls for paying two chickens at Michaelmas and the usual renders and services.

The Welsh and the English of Our Bennion Forebears

Hawarden is only five miles from Chester. Many English families were settled there for centuries prior to 1800. Large landholders with grants extending back to the rule of William the Conqueror had holdings both in English and Welsh counties. This facilitated transplanting families across the Dee River from Cheshire into Flintshire and vice versa. Hawarden parish was east of Offa's dyke built by the Mercians in the latter part of the 8th century. The parish has more of an English character than those lying to the west of it. Mancott township had members from several families found also in Cheshire, notably the Ledshams, Cartwrights, Baxters, Sparks and Hibbards. Moor township, adjoining Mancott on the east had the Street families. These several families, who remained essentially English, intermarried with the Mancott Bennions. Bennion, Baxter and Wainwright families lived in Bannel Township in Hawarden Parish two miles south of the town of Hawarden.

Except for his surname, the paternal great-grandfather of Samuel and John, named John Bennion, who was born 8 August 1723 when his parents were sojourning in Capenhurst, Shotwick parish, Cheshire, was almost an Englishman. But about a hundred years later, when Samuel and John were born, their mother, grandmother and great-grandmother were Welsh in name and pedigree from Hope, Cilcain, Mold and Flint parishes. This made the two brothers slightly more than seven eighths Welsh, but comfortably at home either among Welsh or English.

Comment on the foregoing will, on events that may have evoked it, and on succeeding developments ...

By Howard S. Bennion

Picture for a moment the difficult situation of the oldest son, the heir by the terms of his father's lease from the landlord, Thomas Ravenscroft, to a valuable lease hold. Cut off with one shilling, taking over the property in the Spring season, the leasehold stripped of everything that could be taken from it--every last animal, implement, tool, utensil, furnishing, all the stores and provisions and even the crops to be harvested in the coming summer and fall. Undoubtedly a dying father's concern for the future of four unmarried daughters ranging in ages from 9 to 18, contributed to this death-bed decision to revoke his previous will and spell out in detail the drastic terms of this last will and testament. Perhaps also there was a shrewd idea that a rich father-in-law would tide his son John over the difficulty by furnishing money or credit to buy at a good price the livestock, implements, tools and other much needed items from the legatees. The inventory showed practically no cash. Usually a father or mother expecting death had converted considerable property into liquid assets for distribution. But the language and provisions of the testament indicate considerable ill will.

At about the age of 23 in October 1713, the oldest son John, heir to the leasehold, had married Susannah, daughter of a well to do yeoman, Thomas Baxter, with a leasehold at Chorley, Backford parish where he lived and a second leasehold at Capenhurst, Shotwick parish, both in Cheshire, across the Dee River from Hawarden parish. Susan kept house for her father, a widower of a few months, and John and Susan made their home with him. Their first child, John, born there in August 1714, was taken to the Mancott home and died and was buried in Hawarden Churchyard November 29, 1714. A daughter Mary, another son John were born and died at Mancott. A second Mary was born there. Then a third John was born and died. In the meantime, Susan's father had turned over his Chorley place to his oldest son and moved to his Capenhurst holding. Perhaps disheartened by the loss of four children, John and Susan moved to Capenhurst for the next few years. Their second Mary died at Capenhurst in 1723 bringing their loss to five, but the four children born to them in Capenhurst survived. They were John, born August 8, 1823, who became the great grandfather of Samuel and John, then William, Jane and a third Mary, born in 1733.

In the years following his sojourn in Capenhurst until his unrecorded death about 1746, John Bennion served on a king's jury to survey the lower Dee River between Chester and its mouth and redetermine that section of the Welsh-English boundary. He served also on one or more committees to survey the condition of the poor and recommend measures to be taken. His signature in his own hand appears on a map and on documents now in the library of the Flint County Record Office at Hawarden. His widow Susannah lived during her widowhood in Pentrobin township of Hawarden parish. She died in 1755 and the letter of administration of her belongings revealed that she was in modest circumstances.

What of William and the four daughters. William, who was 21 when his father died, married in 1718 Margaret Howell and had several children. He resided in Bannell township of Hawarden parish and his name appears in the records indicating he was a man of responsible affairs as was his son William after him. William Senior died in 1744 and his widow in 1758. Anne, the second in the list of four daughters in the 1714 will of John Bennion married Daniel Ledsham in 1719. The Hawarden parish register does not show or indicate that Alice, Elizabeth or Jane ever married. There is no indication in any of the records of ill will between the eldest son John and his brother and sisters.

John Bennion, the great grandfather of Samuel and John, born in 1723 in Capenhurst, Cheshire, was married to Ann Griffith, originally from Flint Mountain Village, on Apr. 22, 1746. He was one of the two church wardens of Hawarden parish in 1766 and 1767. He received a bequest in September 1775 from William Griffith of Hawarden. This is the last official record in which he appears. The last account of him and the brief story of his son William Bennion is told in John Bennion's account of his early life which appears further on in this volume.

OUR BENNION PIONEERS

JOHN BENNION SR.

The following sketch was written by Samuel Bennion

My father was born November 9th, 1786, at Mancott, near Hawarden Flint County, North Wales, England. He was the second son of William and Elizabeth Iboll (Eubale) Bennion. Was brought up and followed the occupation of a farmer. He was married to Elizabeth Roberts on the 24th of September, 1811, at St. Mary's Church in the City of Chester, England, and lived on a small farm in the Moor Lane near Hawarden, twenty five years.

My mother, Elisabeth Roberts Bennion, departed this life on the first day of May, 1831, at the age of forty years. Buried in Hawarden Churchyard after a lingering illness of several years. First the dropsy and afterwards a stroke of the palsy, losing the use of one side.

My father died at this place (Garden Grove, Ia.) on the 24th of September, 1846, aged sixty (60) years, at ten minutes to four o'clock P.M. Buried on the 26th, under a large oak tree in the big field by the Side of the Timber, and by the side of Father Samuel Bent at Garden Grove in what is now Decatur Co., State of Iowa, 160 miles west from Nauvoo. He was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latterday Saints in the River Mersey by Elder James Houston. He lived and died in full faith in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latterday Saints.

Editor's Notes:

Elizabeth, mother of John Bennion Sr. was christened Elizabeth Eubale in Mold Parish. The surname was usually pronounced Ible. When she and others of that family moved to Hawarden her surname was written Iball Ibel or Ibell. The letter e was made as we now make the letter o. Hence, we got the spelling Iboll.

The record of the marriage of John Bennion and Elizabeth Roberts appears definitely to be 14 Sept. 1811. The death of Elizabeth Roberts Bennion occurred 1 May 1830.

The L. D. S. Church records show that John Bennion Sr. was baptized in 1843. One record gives it as May 1843.

Daughters Mary and Elizabeth kept house for their father after the death of their mother. Mary married in 1842 Elizabeth married in July 1844, about two months after her father emigrated to America to join his son John in Nauvoo, Illinois.

HISTORY OF SAMUEL BENNION By Himself

Samuel Bennion was born December 11, 1818, in the Moor Lane near Hawarden, near Chester County of Flintshire North Wales, England.

Mary Bushell was born March 1, 1816, in Roby, in the Parish of Huyton, County of Lancashire, England.

Samuel Bennion and Mary Bushell married on Sunday, the 28th day of April, 1839, in St. Nicholas Church, Liverpool.

At the same time I worked as a Journeyman Baker for Robert Farrall, Mill Street, Taxteth Park Liverpool. September 14th, 1839, by the assistance of my uncle, William Bennion, I commenced business for myself as Bread, Flour and Provision Dealer in Harding Street Windsor, joining Liverpool.

I gave up the Business on the 4th day of November, 1844 to prepare to come to America. During the time I carried on the business I cleared about £ 500 or 2500 dollars.

I was Baptized and confirmed a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints on the 30th day of September, 1842 in the River Mersey, Liverpool, by Elder Thomas Domvale.

Mary Bushell Bennion continued in her adherence to the Methodist faith until 1848 when she was baptized by Bishop Abram Hoagland, in Salt Lake City.

I left Liverpool in 1845, and set sail for America on Sunday, the 30th day of March, on the sailing ship Parthenon, - Captain Woodbury.

After a pleasant voyage of six (6) weeks arrived at New Orleans on the 12th day of May in the afternoon.

Myself, wife and son John R., aged five years, one daughter, aged three months.

We arrived at St. Louis on the 20th day of May, where my father met us from Nauvoo. He left Liverpool one year before, or in the Spring of 1844 on the ship John Cummins.

We arrived at Nauvoo on the 23rd day of May near night. Stopped the first night in the Stone House at the landing. Next day the Saints were putting the Capstone on the Temple, and my brother John brought his team, took us to his house or shanty seven miles east of Nauvoo where I bought 85 acres of land of Daniel H. Wells, the same summer. Had it fenced and built a good two story Brick House with six apartments in it. Hauled thirty two thousand bricks from Nauvoo. Cost of house was one thousand dollars. During the summer my father, myself and wife and two children, John R. and Elizabeth were sick with the ague and fever.

On the 18th day of February 1846, our little daughter Elizabeth died of the same. Buried in the Nauvoo burying ground, near Nauvoo, and put a large headstone on her grave.

May 1846, I sold my house and farm for two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.) part trade.

On the 19th day of May 1846, we left our Nauvoo home to go West somewhere. Myself, wife, son, and father, brother John and his wife Esther Wainwright and two children, Samuel R. and Mary.

We traveled one hundred sixty miles west from Nauvoo, and stopped at a place called Garden Grove. Here we plowed up land and put in some corn and buckwheat.

My father had one yoke of oxen and one light wagon. I had two yoke of oxen and wagon, one span of horses and wagon. My wife drove the horse team.

HISTORY OF JOHN BENNION By Himself

John, son of John and Elizabeth Bennion, was born in the township of Moor, Parish of Hawarden, County of Flint, North Wales.

My grandfather's name was William; his father's name was John Bennion, who was said to be an opulent farmer in his time, but ill fortune attended him, and his substance wasted away. The last known of him, one day he went out of his house and was never seen or heard of after. My grandfather was then a boy of twelve or fourteen. He now went into the employ of farmers by the year for a livelihood until grown, when he married Elizabeth Ibel. He labored by the day the remainder of his life while his health permitted; was an honest, hard-working man and out of his small earnings saved enough to support him in his old age when feeble.

My grandmother died about 1824. My first days at school I remember dinnering at her house at noontime. My grandfather lived with his children the remainder of his days. His last home was at Shotton, Hawarden Parish, with his daughter Elizabeth Jones, where he died in peace in his eightieth year. He was buried in the same grave with his wife. I attended his burial. At evening his children met, five in number, and after settling up all funeral and other expenses, had a few pounds left of his means which was equally divided amongst his children. He had appointed my father his administrator. He had reared up a family of six children, three sons, William, John and Samuel (who died in Liverpool leaving a wife and three children), three daughters, Ann, Susan, and Elizabeth, each of whom had married and had numerous families, namely, Chamberlain, Bentley, and Jones.

My father, John Bennion, was born in the town of Mancott, Parish of Hawarden, County of Flint, North Wales, on the 9th of November, 1786. In his youth, education in schools was mostly out of the reach of the day laborer. He had about one quarter's schooling, commenced to earn his living away from home at about twelve or fourteen years of age. From that time until he married he lived in the employ of different farmers in the Parish. He was married on the 14th of September 1811 at St. Mary's Church, Chester, to Elizabeth Roberts who was one of seven children, namely: John, Richard, Elizabeth, Sarah, Ann, Maria, and Rebecca. My grandfather Roberts died in the eighty-first year of his age; my grandmother died about the same time in the eighty-second year of her age. They were both buried in the Hope Churchyard.

My father, after his marriage, changed his labors from a servant hired by the year to a day laborer at which he continued two or three years, having now saved a little money, he took a small farm to rent in the township of Moor in Hawarden Parish where he procured a comfortable livelihood for about twenty years; had about twelve acres of land for raising hay, grain, vegetables and pasture, besides a garden and orchards. While my mother had her health they increased in property so that when she was taken sick in the year 1823 of the dropsy, which sickness increased upon her. Also a few months before her death she had a stroke of palsy by which she lost the use of one side so that she had to be carried about in a chair. Her affliction increased until on May 1, 1830, she departed this life and was buried in the same grave with my grandfather and grandmother Bennion in Hawarden Churchyard. She raised four children, Mary, born at Moor Lane 25th of August, 1817; Samuel, born at Moor Lane December 11, 1818; John, born at Moor Lane July 9, 1820; Elizabeth, born at Moor Lane January 10, 1822. At the death of mother my sisters became housekeepers for father, which part they performed up till my father left for America.

Samuel left home at the age of twelve years; went to Uncle William to learn the baking business. I went to school when I could be spared until about fourteen years of age. When fifteen and at home it was dull prospects for farmers; my father thought it for the best to put me to learn a trade and engaged me to Mr. Rigby and Company, to boilermaking, where I stayed only about one year, at which time I left home and employ to go I knew not where, but I was determined to leave home.

Latter part of

My father had been a member of the Methodist Society a number of years and had taught his children strict morals and religion; but as I grew up in my teens and became associated with boys who were less under religious influence, going to Sunday School and to hear preaching became burdensome to me, choosing rather to spend the Sunday with my comrades in some fun. One Sunday, I with two others were rambling through the fields with a dog a rabbit chasing when the dog caught one. A watcher came upon us and declared we were poaching. Next day we were summoned to appear before a justice for trial but I was determined not to submit to such proceedings. I therefore took my departure another way and came to Liverpool.

After a few days search I got employ at Mr. Horton and Company's boiler yard. I did not like my shop mates and left at the end of three weeks and by this time I felt homesick so after my work was done on Saturday night I crossed the river on steamer and walked home, a distance of twenty miles. My people were glad to see me, to know where I had gone and what my prospects were. They were anxious to hear from me, I being young and inexperienced to leave home and go among strangers.

Next day I returned to Liverpool and after wandering about Lancashire for several days, settled in work again at Vayxhall Boiler Yard, lodging at Mr. Wainwright's. After I had wrought a few days the foreman proposed to hire me for the three years to which I agreed, first year for 10 s a week, second year for 12 s, third year for 14 s, which contract I fulfilled to the satisfaction of my employers.

Latter part of 1836 to latter
part of 1839

About the last of my servitude my foreman asked me to engage for the three years more; I answered him hastily that he had not done as well as he might to me in times past, referring to his not teaching me the business. He said he had done well by me and that I was like unto throwing dust in his eyes so I must quit his employ. I then went to work for Vernon & Company; William Jones, foreman, had 20 s per week, labored there one year and a half, during which time I lodged with Peter Shone.

Latter part of 1839 to June
1841

Soon after I came to Liverpool I became a member of Mr. Aiken's Society, or the Christian Society, and continued to be in membership until May, 1841. In 1840 two elders came to Liverpool to preach the gospel in its fullness; namely, John Taylor and Joseph Fielding. They came first to Mr. Aiken's chapel where I belonged. My attention was taken upon them as they came in chapel, although strangers. Elder Taylor, after the preaching, asked the privilege to make some remarks but could not, except to the leaders. On account of Elder Taylor coming and teaching the way of salvation as it had been revealed from the heavens, there became quite a stir; a few believed and obeyed; some got angry and kicked against it while others gave heed to the cry of the priests saying, "Keep away from it, it is a dangerous delusion."

About the last of my servitude my foreman asked me to engage for several visits, in about nine days they gave up all hope of reclaiming me. Mr. Shone whom I lodged with felt sorry for me and more so for my Father who had taken much pains to bring me up religiously. He thought my course would be a course of much grief and sorrow to him, thereby, he said, I was breaking the commandment, "Honor thy father and thy mother."

This caused me to reflect upon it and that same night I dreamed that I went home and instead of my folks being angry and reprimanding me for my course, they were silent on the matter and I had to introduce it myself. After a few days I went home on a visit, and as I had dreamed, so it was. They welcomed me, but as though some strange thing had happened to me that they feared to ask me about. This being on Saturday night, on Sunday I purposed going to Ewloe, two miles off, to meet with the Saints, but when I went to put on my coat, it was missing. My sisters had concealed it to prevent me from meeting with the Saints. When their Methodist Chapel time had come, my coat came to light and I started with my father to his place of meeting. While on the way I showed from the Scriptures that the doctrine and faith that I had embraced was such as the apostles anciently preached and that there had been a falling away in the church also that God had restored the everlasting gospel with commissioned officers to administer the ordinances and that signs do follow them that believe. These things appeared strange to him but too scriptural for him to contradict. We attended chapel, heard a fine discourse from an itinerant preacher. His text was good but his comment was like sounding brass and tinkling cymbal.

Before I left home to return to Liverpool I made up my mind to come back home and work for father on his farm as I had left home when young and had not been of any or little help to him. I went back to Liverpool and gave my employer due notice to leave his employ, which I did. At the end of five and a half weeks after I was baptized I returned home. Before leaving Liverpool I was ordained a priest under the hands of John Greenhow and Thomas Domville, both high priests, in the house of Brother Thomas Hall. I went home to tarry; this was in the month of June, and commenced to labor for my father on the farm. On the first Sunday I went to the meeting of the Saints. They received me gladly, and as there was no higher officer present I had to take the lead of the meeting and stand up to preach for the first time. I spoke a short time under a great depression of spirits. I continued at home until February, working for father in the daytime and meeting with the Saints evenings and Sundays, enjoying myself very well. At times I had to take the lead of small meetings and speak a little which became less of a task. I baptized five persons and labored in the branches around according to my ability. I also discovered by hearing and reflecting that the time had come for the Saints to gather to Zion. One day while I was at work with my father I made known to him that I felt it my duty to gather with the Saints and that the ship would sail in about two weeks and that I would like to sail in it. He replied that as he understood our faith he expected that I would at some time go, but did not expect that I would go so soon. But as he thought I knew what I was about he should not try to stop me. He told Mary, my oldest sister, to take money out of his box and give me to pay my passage. She said she would not hand out money to carry me away from home to a foreign land, never to see me any more, but my younger sister mustered courage and fetched out the money.

I started for Liverpool for the purpose of taking passage in the ship "Hope" which sailed February 5, but postponed my trip until the next shipload of Saints sailed three weeks later on the John Cummins. This was in order to take a wife with me who was not then ready. It then became publicly known that I was going to America. My old neighbors and friends came now to give me some friendly advice, to give up my strange notions and content myself at home; but the more they talked the more intent I became to go ahead.

Dear Father and Mother

On account of not hearing from us so long it may be that you have concluded that we have got to some place past hearing of we are indeed got to a place where there is no post office that I know of within 100 miles or you would have heard from us before this time

On the 19th of May we left home in Illinois for the west after some trouble and runing about to prepare ourselves for the journey we had two waggons one loaded with provisions the other our cloathing indeed it was our house for 3 months we had 12 head of cattle kind 2 head of horse kind and 5 sheep we crossed the Mississippi river on the 21st at fort Maddison next 2 days we travelled alone Sam'l and father 3 waggons and mine made 5 waggons on the second evening we overtook a company of our neighbours with whom we travelled to this place the company now numbered 8 familys and 17 waggons

We travelled 4 weeks crossed the Desomoine river at Quoesucque (now spelled Keosauqua) which was the last place of trade we came through but passed through a country newly and thinly settled I drove one waggon drawn by three yoke of cattle and Sammy and his mother drove the other waggon after me with one yoke of steady oxen they come along well till Esther hurt herself by a fall from of the waggon by which she hurt her arm and disabled herself for several days the company was kind to us and helped us till Esther got better

Sam'l had on the road his best horse bit by a rattlesnake which come nigh killing it one or too other creatures in the company was bit but did not lose them we come to anchor at this place where is about 100 familys whom chose to stop here this summer and raise some crops so we joined in with them although we had started to go further for several reasons we stoped hear one was it was dificult for us to travel while Esther had not yet the use of her arm and it was with difficult Sam'l could bring along his mare that had been bit and another reason was it did not appear that any would get to a final stopping place this year so we stoped time enough to plough and put in about 13 acres of crops afterwards we built us a log house there is plenty of timber here free so it is not difficult here to get houses.

Next buissness was with us to get hay we comenced this in the latter end of August we had not any sickness from the time we left Illinois except Father had had two or three short spells of the Ague he was then with Sam'l he afterwards come to live with us as autumn drew on our neighbors begun to sicken around us and even the healthiest of people as well as myself felt the effect of a wild wilderness country where white man had scarcely ever trod but a rich soil growing with wild grass and weeds and all manner of wild vegetation a great portion of which is poisonous in its nature this and other causes try the constitution of a man

I had a tour into Missouri in search of a horse that was stolen from me from the time I left home till I returned I travelled about 200 miles through a thinly settled and rough country mostly I stopped at a house at night and the people lodged me and my horse and would not have nothing for it but two nights I could not find any house so I lay me down under a tree and so pass the night this is not hard for me to do but all these things is against the health however I got my horse home back and saw a great deal of country and many strange people but treated me well

We commenced getting hay myself and Father

We got home 4 loads I was then taken sick of the ague on the 4th of Sept<sup>r</sup> Father took sick of a billious fever on the 8th he was at work in the hay in a week from that he was confined to his bed and on thursday the 24th he died you will see more particulars in Sam's letter I got rid of my complaint in a few days and was able to attend on my Father during his sickness Sammy has had a light spell of the ague and is getting over it Esther keeps up all the time But has not the best of health Mary and Ann are very healthy we soon expect cold weather which brings health

When we left Illinois Thomas had not come up to see us nor see after his things nor had we any letter or order from him to send them we expected and where looking for him to the last we saw a fireman of a steamboat 2 or 3 days before we started who said he saw Thomas in St Louis a few days before we then packed his things cloaths Bedding and all and gave them to the care of Mrs Sarah Railey daughter of Jonathan Pugmire who resides in St Louis she would keep them till Thomas called for them we where sorry not to see him but we could - - - - (illegible)

We wrote a letter and sent to him by post. We cannot give you any directions to write us except someone coming from England here to headquarters I intend to write to my sisters soon I shall try to hear from Thomas this winter I must conclude for want of room. Please remember us to uncles aunts cousins also to yourselves we wish your happiness be patient a little while till we get to a good and lasting stopping place then we can communicate back and forth to each other we remain yours in haste J & E Bennion

Dear Father and mother I address you as such because I feel as though you were nearer in relationship to me than before a mothers care I early was deprived of but was left with a good father whose counsel was good to me untill of late as you have heard he has been taken from us a short time ago he sait with us round the evenings fire side our little children would gather around him and he would take pleasure to hear them chatter and would amuse himself with them especially his little favorite Mary but now he has gone and I sometimes wish you were within our reach so that we could see you now and then at-present this prospect looks dark we are traveling farther off having no certain dwelling place But I hope some day to find a place of rest Esther and the children where well when I left home 13 days ago I am now 160 miles from home with a waggon and 2 yoke of oxen I load up tomorrow with provisions and shop goods for myself and neighbours and intend to start next day for home whither I am anxciou to reach sometimes I feel bad enough to cry travelling over 300 miles alone in the dead of winter yesterday I passed within sight of Nauvoo 5 miles distance the place that once was the delight of the saints but is now comparatively a desolate place I write this evening to St. Louis to Thos Hall to inquire after Thomas I have not heard from him since we sent down his things please excuse me for troubling you with my sisters letter for I have not the directions to them I want to hear how you are getting on before I leave civilized country and if you want to write to us in time to come and know not where Elder John Taylor can direct you to headquarters and it will likely come down to me I send my respects to you and all inquiring friends J Bennion

Note: These letters of John Bennion to his wife's parents are clear, direct and full of information. Absence of punctuation and much of spelling was then common. A few years later he wrote as an educated man.

A VISIT WITH THE PRIME MINISTER OF GREAT BRITAIN

Recollection of a Retold Story, by Howard S. Bennion

William E. Gladstone, one of Britain's great prime ministers married Lady Glynne, heiress of Hawarden Castle. They made the Castle their home when not residing in London. Sir William and his lady are buried in Hawarden Church in marble caskets near the altar.

In a letter telling of his first visit to Hawarden upon his return to the British Isles in November 1872, about thirty years after his departure for Nauvoo, Illinois, John Bennion told of seeing the Prime Minister and his lady at the Sunday Church service, of visiting the park and castle the following day with his cousin, who served in the Castle, of encountering Lady Gladstone in the park and being introduced to her as the son of Bettie Bennion whom she remembered visiting though his mother died forty two years earlier.

On a subsequent visit to Hawarden grandfather was invited by the Prime Minister to visit him at his home. No doubt Lady Gladstone and perhaps the rector of the Hawarden church, who had assisted grandfather in extracting Bennion records from the parish register, had told the Prime Minister about grandfather and the purpose of his visit.

During the visit the Prime Minister asked many searching questions about the United States, particularly about the Middle West and the Rocky Mountains, with which his visitor was acquainted, and more particularly about the Mormon people and their leaders and their colonization of the vast Rocky Mountain Region. He was well informed and asked questions concerning matters he wanted to know more about--colonizing, locating, planning and building communities, how the leaders administered and controlled the work and the people. At the close of the visit he expressed wonderment at what experience and what a system of life had done to transform the son of a tenant farmer of the neighborhood into a man of broad statesman-like vision, understanding and knowledge. This he said was outside his previous experience and observation.

A TRIBUTE TO SAMUEL AND JOHN BENNION

The outstanding attributes of Samuel and John Bennion were faith, obedience and good works throughout their lives. They had genuine, consistent, individual, wise and practical concern for the upbringing of each of their children and started them well on the road to useful, productive lives. They made it their main business to instruct and train their children in fruitful endeavor; not one big lifetime lecture, but step by step teaching.

It was knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ brought to them in England that raised them to a high level of opportunity. It was steadfast, unflinching adherence to its principles in letter and spirit that preserved and enlarged their capacity to achieve works of great eternal value. They were stout hearted and unflagging. They had unusually able leaders. They accepted without question missions from these leaders that were sometimes onerous and required sacrifice, but they did so with a spirit that left no trace of resentment to canker the souls or blight the faith and devotion of their children.

Samuel and John had the ability and made the constant effort to build strong family ties. Their children had a real liking for each other. They enjoyed and sought out each other's company. There was a mutual concern and consideration among brothers and sisters and cousins rarely found in even small families. To this day, their influence is plainly felt in drawing their descendants together in love and respect, one for the other. Older members of the family have spoken of the rare strength of the bond between the two brothers and of their undiminished devotion to the mother who died when they were boys and their strong devotion to their father who had been weakened by malaria and hardship and died at Garden Grove, Iowa, a few months after their expulsion from Nauvoo.

My esteem for Samuel and John Bennion was aroused early in my childhood by stories of the two men I heard from my grandmother, my father, from my uncles, aunts, and other older members of the family, and by the evident and profound love, respect and admiration, without exception, they had for them. This esteem was increased by hearing from Church leaders favorable references to the Bennion family from time to time. But my esteem was greatly enhanced as I learned from experience how much well-directed effort is required to accomplish good work consistently, and when wide acquaintance with people and families, worthy and unworthy, in many localities and conditions in life, brought judgment to recognize and appreciate extraordinary merit. In closing this volume of the Bennion Family History, therefore, I am impelled to add this tribute to the many that have been paid to Samuel and John Bennion in a strong desire to kindle or rekindle in the hearts of their many descendants a lively and moving appreciation of the great qualities of character and the noteworthy achievements of these two men; and to arouse and strengthen a lasting resolve in each to make his life conform to the standards of integrity, industry, accomplishment and righteous living they consistently upheld.

It was strict adherence to the principles of the restored gospel that enabled the two men successfully to accomplish works of great eternal value. This same plan of action will serve as well each of their descendants. Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he reap. Gal. 6:7. Achievements of eternal worth come not merely by avoiding sins of commission and omission, but by well planned and well executed labor.

To emphasize by repetition, the outstanding attributes of Samuel and John Bennion were faith, obedience and good works.
